

EAS Specialist – Program Checklist

Name: _____ Student #: _____

Year of enrolment in Subject POST: _____

Core Courses

- ___ EAS103H Premodern East Asian History (normally taken in the first semester)
- ___ EAS105H Modern East Asian History (normally taken in the second semester)
- ___ EAS209H Approaches to East Asia (normally taken in the second year)

Credit Subtotal: _____

Language Requirement & Courses

EAS Specialists are required to attain third-year level language proficiency by taking the appropriate courses or by demonstrating proficiency in an initial placement test. If you are waived from second- and/or third-year language courses, you must take additional Society-Culture courses to replace them.

- ___ EAS100Y1/101Y1/110Y1/120Y1/Waived (Circle one)
- ___ EAS200Y1/201Y1/210Y1/220Y1/290Y1/Waived (Circle one)
- ___ EAS300Y1/310Y1/320Y1/Waived (Circle one)

List additional EAS language courses that you have taken, if any : _____

If you passed a waiver exam, indicate language and date of exam: _____

Credit Subtotal: _____

Society-Culture Courses

Your total credits must equal 10 FCEs. The number of Society-Culture courses you must take will depend on your credit subtotal from your Language courses. You must take at least 5.0 FCEs of Society and Culture courses with 4.0 FCEs at the 300 level or above, of which a minimum of 1.0 credit must be at the 400-level. Please note that a maximum of 2.0 credits may be courses on East Asia taught by other departments (please see EAS website for details on which courses are acceptable for this credit).

200-level Society-Culture courses:

_____	_____
_____	_____

300-level Society-Culture courses:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

400-level Society-Culture courses:

_____	_____
_____	_____

Total Society-Culture Credit Subtotal: _____

Notes

Please list any transfer credits or make note of any special circumstances/exemptions.

--

Total Credits

Total Credits (Total of 10 – or more if following requirements from a previous year): _____

Please send completed form to the EAS Program Administrator (natasja.vanderberg@utoronto.ca) for confirmation of your credits.