

Department of East Asian Studies/University of Toronto
PhD Students Progress Report (Yrs 1-2)

Student Name: _____ Student Number: _____

Date of Meeting: _____

The EAS Progress Report is an accountability structure meant to ensure that student, supervisor, and Department are all contributing to the student's progress through the program before the comprehensive exam. At the end of Year 1 and Year 2, the PhD student should meet with their supervisor and assess the ongoing scholarly training and any potential training gaps. The form is to be filled out by the student, approved by the supervisor, signed by both parties, and then submitted to the Department by May 31.
